ICAP signs accord under BB Youth Development Programme

KARACHI: Minister for Youth Affairs Syed Faisal Ali Sabzwari and the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Pakistan (ICAP) President Abdul Rahim Suriya on Wednesday signed a memorandum of understanding (MoU) under Benazir Bhutto Shaheed Youth Development Programme.

In consonance with its mission to add value to the economy, the Institute has joined hands with the Government of Sindh under the Benazir Bhutto Shaheed Youth Development Programme, for entertaining training in taxation for unemployed unskilled youth of the Sindh province.

The programme has two phases; (a) imparting basic knowledge on taxation laws and processes, and (b) Linking academic knowledge with practical application in taxation sector.

At the occasion, the minister said the ICAP was the premier institute of the country, and added that affiliation with ICAP would definitely enrich the trainees with knowledge and skills and they will prove to be a good trained source for the country in the field of taxation.

The President at this occasion said, "it is indeed a great effort on the part of the government to educate our youths enabling them to create better employment opportunities."

"We have always been reaching out to students for the purpose of spreading the awareness of Chartered Accountancy and our legal framework provides for CA qualification only, but the initiative brings for us great opportunity to contribute as a facilitator and become a hub of knowledge between trainees and trusted trainers."
